

IPSWICH NEWS

23rd January 2025 N.Sh.1

---

SPORTS p.4

Ipswich town F.C. beat Chelsea 2-0 in a thrilling match just before Christmas.

Business p.2

The Martlesham Craft Market announced on social media "We have been confirmed as finalists for The East Of England Small Business Awards."

Food p.2

West End Road Burger King in Ipswich gains 24-hour licence. Ipswich Borough Council's licensing committee has granted the premises licence for the West End Road Burger King, at the busy junction with Handford Road and London Road, to stay open 24 hours.

ROADWORKS GLOBAL PROBLEM

Ipswich is currently facing the dangers of damaged roads and bollards. Citizens are showing concern, since they are worried about vehicles driving on the pavement, which apart from being dangerous disturbs the residents due to the motorists honking their horns late at night.

Weather p.3

Suffolk issued with tornado warning amid Storm Eowyn. Suffolk has been issued with a level one tornado warning as the county braces to face winds of up to 50mph due to Storm Eowyn. This tornado warning is expected to be severe and has been issued from Thursday to Friday.

Education p.3

Clifford Road Primary in Ipswich now 'requires improvement' following school inspection visit.

Housing p.3

Nearly 800 homes without power in north west Ipswich.